“TUT AFTER DARK: NIGHTS IN THE PLANETARIUM” Friday evenings this summer!

Philadelphia, PA – July 10, 2007 - Every Friday evening through Labor Day you might notice a special golden glow coming from the direction of the Benjamin Franklin Parkway -- it's Tut After Dark, The Franklin Institute's special summer offering featuring music (sometimes live), cash bar, special star lounge programming in the Planetarium, and lots of fun!

Tut After Dark begins each Friday evening at 6:00 PM and continues until closing at 9:00 PM. Visitors will enter the building through the special golden entrance which faces the Parkway; and, for the price of a Golden Ticket ($25.00) they'll be able to view the King Tut exhibit, the IMAX film, “Mummies: Secrets of the Pharaohs,” as well as Tut After Dark.

Below are the dates for “Tut After Dark: Nights in the Planetarium”:

- July 20th WJJZ Radio Live Music
- July 27th WMMR appearance by the “MMaRmy”
- August 3rd Live music with Middle Eastern Duo, Slo-Mo & Hoagy
- August 10th Back by Popular Demand! Quizzo with Johnny Goodtimes
